The National Brass Band Championships

The National contest as we know it today began in 1900 when an entrepreneur, John Henry Isles saw the potential in Brass Band Contesting at Belle Vue in Manchester. He then organised the National at the Crystal Palace, until it was destroyed by fire in 1936. It then changed venue to the Alexandra Palace for three years. During the war it was suspended until 1946 when Brighouse and Rastrick was the first band to win the contest at the Royal Albert Hall where it has been held ever since.

Clifton had its first success at the Crystal Palace in 1910 when it gained 3rd prize in the Grand Shield section. It is said that the band was placed second in 1911 due the adjudicators being unable to agree the winner so they tossed a coin and Clifton lost. Although regularly contesting the band did not return to the Crystal palace until 1934. This could have been due to the recession with the band struggling to survive during this period. The conductor throughout this period was Fred Berry who went on to make a name for himself with Brighouse & Rastrick.

From 1946 the band regularly competed in the area contests but with very little success. It was to be 1956 before the band once more qualified for the finals in London by gaining 2nd prize at the area qualifying rounds. Four years later in 1960 the band once more attended the finals and was to be 11 years before it again got to London in 1971. During this period the conductor was James Nuttall

In 1975 and 1976 the band qualified. It was a special occasion in 1976 as the band played on the Royal Albert Hall stage. It gave the members a wonderful experience of playing in a very large hall. The conductor at the time was the very experienced James Hickman who had been the bandmaster of Brighouse during its wonderful run of prizes under Professor Walter Hargreaves in the 1960's.

In 1983 with John Edward as bandmaster the band once more went to London, and again in 1986 under the baton of Chris Holden, trombone player with the Opera North Orchestra. Although competing regularly in the 3rd section the band did not qualify for any of the finals during the next 15 years. It was to be 2001 when it won the 4th section area contest under the leadership of Rob Collinson.

In the Autumn of 2005 John Clay took over the baton and in 2006 and 2007 the band qualified for the finals in the 3rd section, now at the Harrogate Conference Centre. These two 2nd prizes helped to promote the band the 2nd section where in 2010 it had its best ever result, 1st prize off a number one draw.

That same year our B Band entered the area contest for the very first time although unplaced it was a tremendous experience for them.

The B Band continued to enter and struck gold in 2014 by winning and qualifying for the finals at Cheltenham. They have qualified again this year by coming 2nd at the area and we are very proud of the team and hope this time they can come away with a prize on 16th September.

FORTY YEARS OF “FLORAL” DANCING

Is it really 40 years since Derek Broadbent arranged an old Cornish melody by Katie Moss for a brass band in a small West Yorkshire town that stayed at number two in the pop charts for 6 weeks prior to Christmas 1977?

In 1911 Katie Moss wrote the music and lyrics of a composition she called the Floral Dance. This described the annual events and her own personal experience of the festivities held in the town of Helston in Cornwall. 66 years later, Derek Broadbent, then Resident Conductor, took Katie Moss's tune and arranged it for The Brighouse and Rastrick Band. The arrangement was recorded on a 45 rpm single (for the younger ones reading this, please check with Wikipedia!) and released to the music loving public. At first sales were slow until it came to the attention of a certain DJ from London called Terry Wogan, who played the tune regularly on his early morning show - suddenly sales took off.

B & R rose to number two in the music charts and were only kept from number one by a certain Paul McCartney / Wings and their Mull of Kintyre. For 6 weeks the two tunes stayed at number one and number two, quite unbelievable to think a brass band from a small West Yorkshire town could vie with the pop elite.

Let us now fast track to March 2017 and the 40th anniversary celebration concert of the Floral Dance at Huddersfield Town Hall. The concert combined the B & R Band of today, and the B & R Band of 1977. Clifton and Lightcliffe's very own Stewart Swallow, Sheridan Fryer, David Crisp and Glenn Crisp represented the 1977 B & R band on the stage that night as members of the original recording of the Floral Dance.

On the evening prior to the concert there was a get together at Bailiff Bridge Community Centre of the 1977 members and guests in preparation of the following day's events. It was a wonderful occasion to meet up with old friends and exchange stories after so many years. Catering was provided by Aunty Pam's army, (Pam Lumb) and was up to the usual impeccable standards.

The first half of the concert got underway to a packed audience and was performed by the current Brighouse and Rastrick Band, under the direction of Derek Broadbent the music showed the class of the band who are number two in the world rankings.

The second half of the concert featured both bands as a massed Brighouse and Rastrick Band. The items were reminiscent of the 1977 era, with African Waltz, Granada, Lara's Theme and March Slav. The audience provided a fantastic atmosphere, whilst Derek Broadbent revelled (as ever) in the occasion giving witty comments between pieces.

Well at last we came to the encore for the evening. This had to be “The Floral Dance” played by the combined B & R bands. The reception was, as expected – a standing ovation, to end a magical and memorable 40th anniversary of Derek Broadbent's special arrangement and B & R's achievement those 40 years ago.

Brighthouse Charity Gala

Held on the last Saturday in June each year in aid of local charities

Saturday 24th June brought around another Brighthouse Gala and the band were once again busy with our fund-raising stall. This year besides having our usual tombola we had wet sponge throwing, poor Alex and Kerry getting wet through, a teddy tombola with a prize every time and all 50 soft toys were won during the afternoon. Our football goalie game was very popular again and even the Mayor joined in.

We had a much better time than last year when a tremendous storm brought a halt to proceedings as everyone dived for cover, this year proved much better with lots of people supporting the local charities. We have to say a big thank you to Rob and Julia Wood for organising our stall, they do a fantastic job throughout the year gathering prizes for the tombola and coming up with new ideas.

We raised £596 on the day which is a great boost for our funds, and with a quiz organised by Stephen, Joanne and Steph White the evening before at the Crow Nest Golf Club raising another £270. The weekend proved to be very successful.

B Band perform at Keighley Railway Station

The B Band once again performed popular tunes and selections for the Vintage Railway Day. This time as the Straw Race was taking place at Oxenhope and the roads were closed we were asked to perform at Keighley Station.

The trains were very busy and lots of people were taking photos of the band and contributing to our collection.

Open University Degree Ceremony

The Senior band were delighted to be asked to perform for the Open Degree Ceremony at the Harrogate Conference Centre in May. This came about with an enquiry from the OU office in Milton Keynes after hearing about the band and looking at our web-site. We arrived at the Centre early morning for a rehearsal with the Masters. After providing the band with lunch we took our places to entertain the students and parents who were filling the hall, we estimated there were around 1200 people listening. We then played Te Deum as the Masters paraded on to the platform.

After the ceremony we gave a rendition of Pateley Bridge by Roy Newsome to the delight of the audience who spontaneously clapped to the beat as the Masters paraded out of the hall.

Lots of nice comments from the audience including one man who was delighted and said he had never heard a brass band before and thought it was wonderful..... obviously not a Yorkshireman!

Fund Raising

We are always on the lookout for ways to raise funds for the organisation. If we need to replace instruments or uniforms it can be very expensive. Our B Band qualifying for the finals is a wonderful achievement but there is a cost in taking them which at present is £5,500. All our members work very hard over the year and travel to and from engagements giving their time without any expenses so it is good to give back something whenever we can.

There are a couple of fund raisers coming up one is the quiz which you can see the details on page 11, it would be good to see lots of people coming along and joining in. It is not like University Challenge its more of a fun evening which all the family can enjoy.

Stephen White our band librarian, and daughter Steph are taking part in the Skipton Santa Dash on 26th November, he has asked for band members, family and friends to enter too.

It is a 5k run/jog/walk and we ask for sponsors for those taking part. It should be fun and even some of us oldies are entering (walking not running).

If you would like to take part ask Stephen or Jane for details.

BBC Radio Leeds

The senior band has been invited to take part in the BBC Radio Leeds Christmas Carol Service, which is being recorded on Wednesday 6th December in Mirfield.

The programme will be broadcast on Christmas Eve and again on Christmas Day it will also be available for 28 days after on iPlayer.

We feel really honoured to be asked to take part in this programme and it will be a new experience for our players recording for the radio.

David Hoyle who is the host for his Sunday afternoon band programme is the one who we have to thank for this invitation. David is kind enough to play our CD's on his programme quite regularly.

So make a note to listen out for the band.

Obituary

It is with sadness that we report the passing of a long time supporter of the band Mrs Debbie Spivey from Clifton. Debbie along with husband Ed was instrumental in organising the hugely successful Proms in the Paddock at Clifton which the band were privileged to be a part of. Debbie passed away after a short illness, she would have been 60 on the 27th August.

Mr Wilfred Oldfield aged 75 was a Baritone player with the band for over a decade in the 1980's Has passed away after a long illness. Both his children Paul and Lorraine were members of the band.

Mr Denis Jagger who was a cornet player with the band in the 1970's passed away aged 86. His daughter Karen is a member of the band.

We send our condolences and thoughts to the families.

Gigglebox

Our Band President Brian Nicholson also doubles up as our concert compere and does a great job, particularly with his little stories between pieces. As I am always looking for different ideas and articles for the newsletter he came up with the idea of Gigglebox and has offered a £5.00 prize for the most amusing one liner to be published in the next newsletter.

Here are a few examples and I want to make it clear they are not mine!

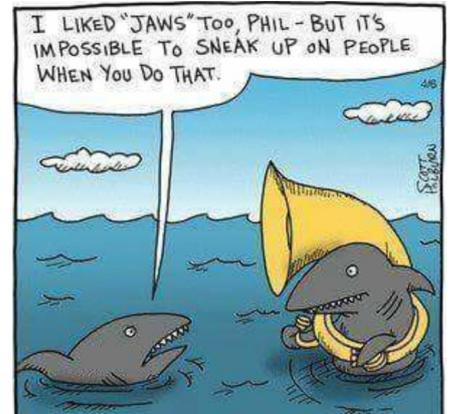

When a man opens a car door for his wife.... Its either a new car or a new wife.

Signing the register at a wedding, the best man was having difficulty make the pen work, "Put your weight on it" said the vicar.... So he wrote John Smith 10 stones 4 pounds.

What happens when you play Beethoven backwards—He decomposes.

How do you make the band stand—Take their chairs away.

How do you mend a broken instrument—with a Tuba glue.
